Press Release

Launch of Consultation Process of the Draft Law on the Organisation and Functioning of the National Human Rights Commission of Cambodia

The Cambodian Human Rights Committee (CHRC), in collaboration with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in Cambodia (OHCHR), is to launch a consultation process with ministries, institutions, civil society organisations and relevant stakeholders to gather input into the Draft Law on the Organisation and Functioning of the National Human Rights Commission of Cambodia from July 2021 onwards.

Consultative groups will be divided according to each human rights theme, and approximately 60 consultation exercises are scheduled to take place through direct consultative meetings or/and video conferencing by the end of 2021. The public may also provide comments and input via the following CHRC Facebook page and Telegram channel:

- Facebook page: Cambodian Human Rights Committee
- Telegram channel: Comment on NHRC Law (https://t.me/comment_on_NHRC_Law)

For more information, please contact H.E. Mr. CHIN Malin, Vice-President and spokesperson of the CHRC at 061 666 778 and H.E. Mr. ORN Katta, member and spokesperson of the CHRC at 012 877 699.
