Celebration of the International Day of the World Indigenous Peoples and the Launch of the Report on Gender-Based Violence Against Indigenous Women in three Provinces of Cambodia

On August 9, 2022, from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm at the Sunway Hotel, Phnom Penh, the Cambodia Indigenous Peoples Alliance will organize the 28th International Day of the World's Indigenous Peoples, the 18th in Cambodia under the theme “Role of Indigenous Women in the Preservation and Transmission of Traditional Knowledge” and the Launching Ceremony of the Report on “Gender-Based Violence Against Indigenous Women in 3 Provinces in Cambodia.” The event will be attended by institutions, organizations, embassies, and indigenous communities from various provinces in Cambodia.

This program aims to promote the important role of indigenous women in the preservation and transmission of traditional knowledge to improve the lives of families, communities, and societies. The official launch of the report on gender-based violence against indigenous women in three provinces: Stung Treng, Mondulakiri, and Ratanakkiri will be also conducted.

The program will include entertainment such as traditional art performances, dances, educational short story performances, songs, and an exhibition of indigenous materials and food.

In this regard, please the public and all presses be informed.
