PRESS RELEASE

"Cambodia's Foreign Ministry to hold Annual Conference to review global geopolitics, regional issues, economic diplomacy and institutional reform"

Phnom Penh, 24 February 2023 – The Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation will hold its Annual Conference on 01-03 March 2023 with attendance of the Ministry's leaders and officials, heads of Cambodia's overseas missions, and high representatives of certain national institutions concerned. The goal is to take stock of diplomacy achievements and to chart a new course of actions for the independent, rule-based foreign policy.

His Excellency PRAK Sokhonn, Deputy Prime Minister, Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, will preside over the opening session and subsequently chair deliberations over the first two days on the topics of the shift in global geopolitics, evolving regional issues of Cambodia's interest and concern, economic diplomacy strategy in the context of global economic slowdown, and the ongoing institutional reform.

Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen, Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia, will preside over the closing ceremony in a retreat format on 03 March 2023, during which he will provide all Cambodian diplomats with a set of policy guidelines and directions that uphold the Kingdom's core interests, guarantee sovereignty and peace, and boost economic ties.
