"Cambodia elected to two subsidiary bodies of the United Nations"

Phnom Penh, 12 May 2023 - During its session in April 2023, the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) hosted an election to fill multiple vacancies of 14 subsidiary bodies of ECOSOC. The Kingdom of Cambodia was elected to two important positions as follows:

1. Membership to the Intergovernmental Working Group of Experts on International Standards of Accounting and Reporting (ISAR) for the term 2024-2026, beginning on 1 January 2024, and
2. Membership to the Programme Coordinating Board (PCB) of the Joint United Nations Programme on HIV/AIDS (UNAIDS) for the Asia-Pacific Region for the term 2023-2025, beginning from 5 April 2023 to 31 December 2025.

Being elected to both ISAR and UNAIDS PCB demonstrates the international community's confidence in Cambodia and their acknowledgement of the Kingdom's national reconstruction and successful management of HIV/AIDS epidemic as well as its contribution to the United Nations and common efforts for the better world. This constitutes one of remarkable achievements that the Kingdom of Cambodia has made in elevating national prestige and actively participating in international affairs.

The Royal Government of Cambodia would like to express its profound appreciation for the support and trust of all governments voting in favor of the Kingdom of Cambodia to assume these significant roles. END
