

Press Release

On the Impacts on Civilian Areas and the Protection of Displaced Civilians Resulting from the War of Territorial Aggression by the Bangkok Government and the Thai Military From 1:00 PM to 6:00 PM on 14 December 2025

The Ministry of Interior of the Royal Government of Cambodia would like to inform the national and international community that, from 1:00 PM until 6:00 PM on 14 December 2025, the violation of international law and breach of the ceasefire by the Thai side against Cambodia's sovereign territory since 7 December - has caused severe impacts on the safety of civilians, and civilian areas as follows:

1. Deaths and Injuries: One civilian has been killed and 15 civilians injured, including one person affected by toxic smoke. As of 6:00 PM on 14 December 2025, the total number of Cambodian civilians killed has reached 12, and the number of injured has reached 74.

2. Displacement of Civilians: In the provinces of Preah Vihear, Oddar Meanchey, Banteay Meanchey, Battambang, Pursat, Koh Kong, and Siem Reap, there are a total of 120,814 displaced families (increased by 3,694 families), equivalent to 403,601 people (increased by 8,895 people). Among them are approximately 208,000 women and around 96,000 children. These figures are subject to change.

3. Destruction of Civilian Infrastructure: Since 7 December to date, a total of 36 civilian houses, one school, one ancient temple, four pagodas, one almshouse, one monks' residence, one customs and excise office building, four casino buildings, three hotels, two additional buildings, one community agricultural center, one stone bridge, one steel bridge, one bridgehead, one gas station, five vehicles (one motorcycle and four cars), one cassava storage warehouse, as well as numerous other properties and assets, have been damaged or destroyed. In addition, essential public services, including administrative services, healthcare, and education across cities, districts, and communes, have been almost entirely suspended due to the Thai side's intensified attacks against civilian areas, employing all types and forms of weapons through Royal Thai Army, Royal Thai Navy, and Royal Thai Air Force.

The Ministry of Interior of the Royal Government of Cambodia once again firmly reiterates its full support and unwavering confidence in Samdech Akka Moha Sena Padei Techo Hun Sen, President of the Senate and Senior Logistic Commander of the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces, and Samdech Moha Borvor Thipadei Hun Manet, the courageous and capable Prime Minister of Cambodia. Under the strategic leadership and experienced guidance of Samdech Techo and Samdech Thipadei, the forces of the Royal Cambodian Armed Forces and the Border Protection Police of the Ministry of Interior are jointly standing guard to defend the territorial integrity and national sovereignty with discipline, bravery, and determination, standing firmly and successfully achieving every objective on the battlefield.
