His Excellency Deputy Prime Minister PRAK Sokhonn to Attend Trilateral Meeting on the Current Situation Between Cambodia and Thailand in Yunnan Province, the People's Republic of China

His Excellency PRAK Sokhonn, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Kingdom of Cambodia, will lead a Cambodian delegation to attend a Trilateral Meeting between Cambodia, Thailand and China to discuss the recent development on the current situation between Cambodia and Thailand, to be held on 28-29 December 2025, in Yunnan Province, the People's Republic of China, at the invitation of His Excellency Wang Yi, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the People's Republic of China.

The meeting aims to facilitate candid and constructive exchanges on the current situation between Cambodia and Thailand, with a view to fostering mutual confidence, promoting de-escalation, and restoring peace, security and stability along the Cambodia–Thailand border areas. Cambodia highly appreciates China's role as host in providing a platform for dialogue and in supporting efforts to promote mutual understanding and regional peace and stability, and continues affirming its consistent position of resolving differences and disputes through all peaceful means, dialogue and diplomacy, in accordance with international law, the United Nations Charter, and the ASEAN Charter.

On the margins of the meeting, His Excellency PRAK Sokhonn will also hold bilateral discussions with His Excellency Wang Yi, with the objective of further advancing cooperation and strong partnership between Cambodia and China that contributes to peace, security, stability and development in the region and the world at large.
