

Public Announcement of the Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts

The Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts of the Kingdom of Cambodia informs the general public that it has formally conveyed a strong protest to the Ministry of Culture of the Kingdom of Thailand regarding all activities undertaken by Thai authorities at the Tamone Temple Complex and Ta Krabei Temple.

The Ministry reaffirms that both temple sites are located entirely within the sovereign territory of Cambodia, as clearly established by the Franco-Siamese Treaties of 1904 and 1907 and their officially recognized maps, which remain valid under international law.

The Ministry expresses grave concern over reports of serious damage and near-total destruction of Ta Krabei Temple, a sacred and historic site that has been preserved for centuries and holds deep cultural and spiritual significance for the Khmer people.

Cambodia cannot accept:

- any use of force against cultural and archaeological sites;
- any unilateral restoration, conservation, registration, or construction activities conducted without Cambodia's consent; or
- any actions that undermine the legal, historical, and cultural status of these sites.

The Ministry has called upon the Thai side to immediately cease all activities at the Tamone and Ta Krabei temple sites, to respect Cambodia's sovereignty, and to resolve all related issues peacefully and in accordance with international law.

The Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts remains committed to the protection of Cambodia's cultural heritage and to cooperation based on mutual respect, legality, and the principles upheld by international organizations.

This announcement is issued for public information.
