Readout on the Courtesy Call on His Excellency Deputy Prime Minister PRAK Sokhonn, Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Kingdom of Cambodia

by Her Excellency Vivian Loss Sanmartin, Ambassador of Brazil to Cambodia

On 2 February 2026, His Excellency Deputy Prime Minister PRAK Sokhonn, Minister of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, received a courtesy call by Her Excellency Vivian Loss Sanmartin, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of Brazil to the Kingdom of Cambodia, at the Ministry.

During the meeting, His Excellency the Deputy Prime Minister warmly welcomed Her Excellency the Ambassador and congratulated her on her appointment as the first Resident Ambassador of Brazil to Cambodia. His Excellency PRAK Sokhonn expressed his satisfaction with the positive momentum in the thriving bilateral relations between the two nations, highlighted by the opening of the respective Resident Embassies in each other's capitals, the upward trend in two-way trade, and growing cooperation in tourism. The Deputy Prime Minister also looked forward to the fruitful outcomes of the second round of Bilateral Consultations, which will take place in Phnom Penh in March this year, during which additional areas of cooperation will be explored for the mutual benefit of both countries.

Her Excellency Vivian Loss Sanmartin welcomed the positive trajectory in bilateral relations and reaffirmed Brazil's commitment to further strengthening cooperation in areas of mutual interest, including trade and investment, education, tourism, environment and agriculture. Both sides exchanged views on deepening Cambodia-Brazil ties and reaffirmed their commitments to continued mutual support at both bilateral and multilateral levels, with the shared objective of fostering prosperity and development for their peoples.

His Excellency Deputy Prime Minister PRAK Sokhonn also took the opportunity to update the Ambassador on the latest developments on the Cambodia-Thailand border issue and expressed appreciation to Brazil's support and encouragement for the ceasefire and peace process.
