ANNOUNCEMENT

On the "Cambodia-China Mixed Martial Arts Performance"
On 30 April 2026 at The North of Bayon Temple, Siem Reap Province

The Ministry of Tourism of the Kingdom of Cambodia has the honor to inform tourism associations, tour operators, private sectors, relevant institutions, national and international media, content creators and the general public that, within the framework of implementing the "Cambodia-China Tourism Year" campaign for 2026, the Ministry of Tourism, in collaboration with the Embassy of the People's Republic of China in Cambodia, will organize the "Cambodia-China Mixed Martial Arts Performance" on 30 April 2026, starting at 7:00 AM at the North of Bayon Temple, Siem Reap province. This event will feature the Cambodia Kun Lbokator martial arts, Yuth Kun Khorm and Kun Khmer alongside the legendary Shaolin Kung Fu and Tai Chi from China.

This event aims to continue implementing the "Cambodia-China Tourism Year" campaign and widely promote Cambodia-China cultural tourism, as well as the promotion of Cambodia Visa exemption scheme for Chinese nationals holding passports of the People's Republic of China (PRC), effective from 15 June to 15 October 2026.

In this connection, the Ministry of Tourism cordially invites the tourism associations, tour operators, private sectors, relevant institutions, national and international media, content creator, and the general public to freely participate and widely promote the aforementioned event.
