Statement of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Kingdom of Cambodia
On the First Anniversary of the Kuala Lumpur Joint Declaration 26 October 2025

On the occasion of the First Anniversary of the signing of the Kuala Lumpur Joint Declaration (also known as the Kuala Lumpur Peace Accords) signed on 26 October 2025 by the Prime Ministers of Cambodia and Thailand and witnessed by His Excellency President Donald Trump of the United States and His Excellency Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim of Malaysia, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of the Kingdom of Cambodia reaffirms Cambodia's unwavering commitment to the Declaration and to the pursuit of lasting peace between Cambodia and Thailand.

Cambodia remains firmly committed to upholding the ceasefire and implementing the spirit of the Declaration in good faith. In this regard, Cambodia reaffirms its commitment to the settlement of border dispute and border demarcation through peaceful means and international law, refraining from the threat or use of force or any acts of provocation. Cambodia recognizes the relevance of the Regional Border Committee, General Border Committee, and Joint Boundary Commission (JBC) as the bilateral mechanisms to work through border-related issues through peaceful means, in accordance with their respective mandates.

The Royal Government of Cambodia remains fully committed to working constructively with Thailand, with the continued support and engagement of the United States of America, along with other partners, in particular ASEAN and interested members of the international community to ensure the full and faithful implementation of the spirit of the Kuala Lumpur Peace Accords and to turn the promise of lasting peace into a reality for the peoples of Cambodia and Thailand.

Cambodia expresses its appreciation to the United States, Malaysia, and ASEAN, as well as other partners for their constructive roles in supporting dialogue and peace efforts. Cambodia remains committed to working with Thailand and all relevant partners to strengthen mutual trust, protect civilians, facilitate the safe return of displaced persons, and promote stability and prosperity along the shared border.
