Phnom Penh (Cambodia), 15–16 November 2026

(English translation of the French preliminary draft arising from the meeting of 29 September)

We, the Heads of State and Government of the countries having French in common, meeting on 15 and 16 November 2026 in Phnom Penh (Kingdom of Cambodia), on the occasion of the 20th Francophonie Summit, on the theme: "Reinvesting in Peace for Shared Prosperity and Lasting Stability";

Reaffirming our respect for the universal principles of international law, in particular those of the Charter of the United Nations and the International Bill of Human Rights, as well as our commitment to multilateralism, to the values of peace and solidarity, and to human rights and fundamental freedoms; reaffirming in particular our commitment to the principles of sovereignty and territorial integrity, any violation of which gravely undermines peace and security; reaffirming furthermore the need to respect international law, in particular the resolutions of the United Nations Security Council and the judgments of the International Court of Justice and, where appropriate, to act upon its advisory opinions relating to situations of crisis and conflict affecting the Francophone space;

Reaffirming also our attachment to the Francophonie, to its values, its diversity and its specificity as a space of dialogue, solidarity and cooperation;

Recalling the need to respect the Charter of the Francophonie, the Bamako Declaration and the Saint-Boniface Declaration, which underpin the action of the International Organisation of La Francophonie (OIF) in the fields of peace, stability and security, the consolidation and strengthening of democracy and the rule of law, the prevention, management and settlement of crises and conflicts, and human rights;

Recalling our determination to prevent and combat violent extremism and radicalisation, and our resolve to protect our populations against terrorist acts affecting every continent;

Reiterating our condemnation of the breaks in constitutional and democratic order that have occurred in the Francophone space, notably as a result of military coups; recalling in this regard the adoption by the 127th session of the Permanent Council of La Francophonie (CPF), on 19 June 2024, of the Mechanism for Monitoring and Assessing the Situation of States and Governments Subject to Measures Taken by the Bodies of La Francophonie, which illustrates the OIF's determination to favour an approach based on dialogue with countries that have experienced breakdowns of democracy, rather than the systematic resort to suspensions, while constantly ensuring that the interests of the populations are taken into account;

Deploring the consequences of crises and conflicts at the human, social, economic, security and environmental levels and in terms of governance, including the forced displacement of populations, the weakening of institutions, public distrust and the aggravation of the vulnerabilities of States; expressing our solidarity with all victims;

Concerned by the risk that contemporary crises and conflicts may be amplified by the spread of hate speech and the use of new technologies; alarmed by the threat that the malicious use of artificial intelligence poses to international peace and stability by accelerating, and increasing the sophistication of, information manipulation campaigns and foreign interference; calling on the OIF to step up its efforts to help prevent and combat these phenomena, in accordance with international law;

Stressing the essential role played by women and young people, by civil society and non-governmental organisations, by moral and traditional authorities and by elected officials in conflict prevention and peacebuilding; recalling in this connection United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 (2000), as well as the adoption, at the 46th session of the Ministerial Conference of La Francophonie (CMF) held in Kigali (Rwanda) on 19 and 20 November 2025, of the Kigali Appeal, in which La Francophonie reaffirmed the importance of women's participation at every stage of peace processes, of conflict prevention and management, and in mediation, negotiation and post-conflict reconstruction processes;

Reaffirming our determination to strengthen the cooperation and coordination of La Francophonie with international and regional organisations, with respect for their respective mandates, in order to enhance the effectiveness of action undertaken in support of peace and stability;

Reiterating our support for United Nations-authorised peace operations and for peacekeeping operations; mindful of the ongoing reflection on their reform and future; welcoming and encouraging the contribution of the States and governments of La Francophonie and of the OIF to these operations, notably through support to Francophone troop- and police-contributing countries, in particular in the areas of training, capacity-building and preparation for deployment; expressing our determination to continue and strengthen this support;

Welcoming the holding, in Rabat (Morocco), on 20 May 2026, of the 2nd Ministerial Conference on Peacekeeping in a Francophone Environment, co-organised by Morocco, France, the United Nations and the OIF, whose Final Declaration reaffirms the commitment of States to peace, security and co-development;

Recalling that lasting solutions to crises and conflicts must be home-grown, founded on an understanding of local realities and consistent with international law, taking into account the economic, social, environmental and cross-border dynamics that may fuel or prolong them; stressing the importance of strengthening the OIF's action in crisis prevention and management, in support of peace processes, notably through mediation, and in accompanying democratic transitions, drawing more extensively on the analytical work of Francophone research centres;

Welcoming the steadfast commitment of the Secretary-General; stressing the role of the OIF in the prevention and management of crises in the Francophone space; and encouraging it to pursue its mediation and political dialogue initiatives, in close consultation with the States and governments concerned;
